REDUCTION IN PRICE. $1.50 PER YEAR.

In view of the fact that everything is now much cheaper than it has been in the past, we have decided to furnish our subscribers with the INTELLIGENCER at One Dollar and Fifty Cents a year, if ordinance to prevent cows from running at paid in advance, or Two Dollars if paid lurge upon the public square and its vicinity at the end of the year.

In doing this we do not intend to reduce the size of our paper, nor to pay less attention to it, but will endeavor to make it better than it has been heretofore, and hope to receive large additions to our subscription list. We ought to have at least twenty-five hundred readers in Anderson County, and hope that our friends will help us to secure that number very soon. In making this change in price, we have put the paper down to the lowest possible margin, and must have the money in advance. We could not afford to publish at this price upon any other plan. We hope all of our subscribers will at once come in and pay up their arrearages and renew at our reduced rates for another year. The following gentlemen are our authorized agents, and payments made to them will be accredited by us: Pendleton-Dr. P. H. E. Sloan. Equality-John M. Glenn. Belton-Jas. W. Poore. Honea Path—M. T. Elgin, Pendleton Factory—H. P. Sitton

BRIEF MENTION.

The exercises of Sandy Springs Academy will be resumed on the first Monday in Parents who desire to obtain the benefit of the public school fund for their children should start them as soon as possible, so a to receive all the allowance they can from the school fund before it is exhausted.

We regret to announce the death of Mr D. J. Tucker, Sr., a respected citizen of this County, which occurred at his residence some eighteen miles south of this place, on Saturday, the 29th of December last. Mr. Tucker had been in feeble health for some years past, and was at the time of hie death in the 84th year of his age. His remains were interred in First Creek Church Yard, after appropriate and solemn funeral services, in the presence of a large concourse of relatives and friends of the deceased. Mr. Tucker was for many years a member of Rocky River Baptist Church, and up to the time of his fallure in health was prominent in the affairs of his church and a useful citizen to the community in which he lived. He leaves behind him a number of relatives, who, who with many friends, will long cherish his memory.

The Tonrament at Slabtown did not come off on the 25th of December last as Williams, Knight of Piercetown; G. W. Bussell, Knight of Mohawk Vale; Monroe Martin, Knight of Six and Twenty; Thos. Guyton, Knight of Beaverdam; E. M. Duckworth, Knight of Orrville; E. C. Jamison, Knight of Grange; B. F. Duckworth, Knight of Good Templars; B. F. Smith, Knight of Slabtown; A. C. Williams, Knight of Williamston; W. D. Glenn, Knight of ted bill of literary fare. Hampton Rangers; F. M. Welborn, Knight of Piednfont; Wm. Tucker, Knight of Hopewell; D. D. Tucker, Knight of Malta; D. A. Mullikin, Knight of the Wild Arab. In the contest Mr. Thes, Guyton took nine popular and singularly interesting temperrings, Mr. W. D. Glenn eight rings, Mr. D. D. Tucker seven rings, Mr Li. Berry Williams six rings, and being ahead of their competitors, won the honors of the day, and crowned the Queen and Maids of Honor as follows: Mr. Guyton crowned Miss Lizzie Smith Queen of Love of Beauty, Mr. Glenn crowned Miss Bessie Barr Isi Maid of Honor, Mr. D. D. Tucker, crowned Miss Bettie Jamison 2d Maid of Honor, and Mr. Williams crowned Miss Ida Watson 3d Mald of Honor. The lay was a very pleasant one, and will long be remembered by those present.

POLL TAX

Persons who have not paid the poll to sill be proceeded against before a Trial Justice as for misdemeanor, and are subject to imprisonment. The County Treasurer, Mr. Moore, is ordered to commence these proceedings at once, and hence he will have no discretion, but must obey orders. Parties who have not paid their poll tax should attend to it immediately.

CAROLINA COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE. This most excellent institution will reopen on Monday, the 14th inst., and de serves to receive the liberal patronage of the citizens of Anderson and adjoining Counties. Our people are interested in having a College of high order at this place, and to secure such an institution should give Prof. Ligon not only the benefit of their patron age, but also of their influence. He is a gentleman of very fine literary attainments, and if encouraged to an extent to justify him in doing so, would make this College the peer of any in the State. It is founded upon the plan of a co-education of the sexes. and has demonstrated by its practical workings for several years past that the system under which it is operated is not only a possible, but that it is a very desirable and successful plan of instruction. The town of Anderson is a healthy location, and possesses a highly intellectual and moral population, which affords improving and pleasant associations to those who may come into our midst for educational purposes. With such a school as that presided over by Prof. Ligon, and such advantages as those pos sessed by our town, we are satisfied that parents at home and abroad cannot find a more desirable institution in which to educate their boys and girls than in the Caro lina Collegiate Institute at Anderson.

ARREST OF MURDERERS.

On last Thursday night two colored men went to Mr. A. J. Stringer, the Express Agent at Belton, for a package belonging to L. M. Williams, but failed to obtain it, as they could not produce the Express receipt or be identified. On Thursday morning the parties called with the receipt and paid the express with a ten dollar bill, for which Mr. Stringer gave them change. Having heard in the Franklin murder, Mr. Stringer examined the ten dollar bill closely, and, with the aid of a microscope, discoverd that certain stains on it were evidently blood, whereupon he communicated the fact to Maj. B. D. Dean, the Intendant, who telegraphed the facts to Ninety-Six, and received an answer directing the arrest of the parties. The arrest was made and officers arrived on the Friday's train to take charge of the prisoners. They were searched and a considerable sum of money was found on them. It is said they made efforts to get colored men to carry them to Georgia, and a letter was found in the pocket of one of them saying he would like to go back to Abbeville, but that times were too hot now, The parties were discovered to be L. M Williams and Tom Carroll, an ex-Coroner and acting Sheriff of Edgefield under Radical rule. It is said that the testimony against them is ample, and that if they fail in this they will have other cases against them in which there is no doubt of their guilt. The action of Mr. Stringer and Maj. Dean was prudent and yet decided, so that the whole credit of these arrests is due to

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The leading feature of APPLETONS' JOUR-NAL for January is an illustrated article descriptive of the building of the great New York and Brooklyn suspension-bridge. This paper, by Mr. Charles Carroll, is written in a graphic and charming manner, independent of its theme; and, as the erection of the bridge is one of the greatest engineering triumphs of the age, the description of the peculiar methods employed will be studied with profound attention by every reader. The Illustrations are numerous and good We find also a very readable paper by Wirt Sikes, entitled "Christmas in Wales." Mr. David Ker tells of an adventure on an Ice land moor : Charlotte Adams has a dramatic sketch of a pathetic incident in an Italian remarkable Portland beach (England;) a "Sermons in Stones," describes an occentric New England stone-breaker of a theological turn of mind. THE PENCE LAW

MR. EDITOR: There seems to be considerable doubt in the minds of the people in regard to the new Fence Law, and numerous enquiries have been made as to when it will go into effect. We desire to state that the Commissioners have declared and published the result of the said election, and that the new Fence Law, according to the Act, and not of the Commissioners, took effect in those Townships adopting it the first day of January, 1878. Parties who suffer their stock to run at large, do so at their own risk.

The line fences will be built as soon as practicable, and the fact that they are not practicable, and the fact that they are not some some source of the commission of the commissi practicable, and the fact that they are not built is no license for parties to suffer their stock to run at large.

FIVE FORKS. MR. EDITOR: Permit me to refer to an organization in the upper part of the County which is attracting considerable attention. I refer to a militia company called the Conplayhouse; there is a good description of the ner Light Dragoons. It was first known as Garvin Light Dragoons, but in consideration paper by C. P. Cranch, under the title of of the distinguished services of Gen. Conner in this State, it was changed to Conner Light Dragoons. The members of the Company are very proud of its name, and believe that anticipated, but on last Monday the Knights sketch, "Arachne and Penelope," by M. It now numbers about seventy, and is gaining accessions at each meeting, is well officered, and has become an organization of which the County may well be proud. When it was first formed many predicted that it would be "defunct" before the close of the year, but on the 22d ult. its permanent success was demonstra ted beyond a question.

> years ago that a Democratic cavalry company could be organized, armed and equipped by the government in the State of South Carolina would have been preposterous, and the idea of the Company receiving arms when it was organized was chimerical, but on the day above referred to they were dire tributed at Rishon's Branch, when the Company met for drill. On the same day a fing of rare beauty was presented the Com-pany. The donors were Misses Anna Simpson, Janie Simpson, Julia Hascall and Mrs. R. W. Simpson. Its preparation cost much money and labor, and its beauty and incriptions evince a taste rarely if ever displayed. On one occasion Washington said "The Independence of America is attributable to the noble women of America." But never did I appreciate his remark, or fully realize the potency of woman's voice on occasions akin to the one to which I refer, till I heard Miss Simpson's words of encouragement on presenting the flag to the Com

After drill Captain Simpson stated that he ad been tendered a position of honor by Governor Hampton, which he could not accept without resigning his Captaincy; that he highly appreciated the compliment of the Governor, but that the members of the Company were his neighbors, with whose interests his were identified, and with whom he was united by many dear ties; that he had labored hard in aiding the Company to attain the perfection which it had attained and that if he left it it would be with great reluctance; however, if the Company thought best, he would accept the position offered by the Governor. Immediately afterwards he retired from the Company leaving it alone to consider the matter. The following resolution was unanimously adopted:

son he asked to withhold his decision till the next meeting, which was held on the 28th ult at this place. A lack of promptness on the part of Captain Simpson in attaining a decision induced some members of the company to suspect that he thought some one did not wish to retain him; consequently, on the day last referred to the W. It is only now and then that such men as Hon. Alex. II. Stephens, Ex-Gov. Smith and Ex-Gov. TO OUR PATRONS AND FRIENDS!

WE have, during the pest year, received such liberal support, and our efforts to meet the public demand have met with such gracious encouragement and appreciation, that we feel doubly impelled, at this time, to extend to all the courtesics of the season. To be sure, the tie which binds the merchant and his patrons is, at best, very slight; yet we believe it sufficiently strong to warrant us in expressing our congratulations to the very many Ladies and Gentle men who have, in person or by letter, given us the favor of their patronage.

We invoke for you all imaginable blessings! May Love reside in your homes, Contentment in your hearts, and Plenty in your purses.

And may all who read these lines, when the coming year shall have passed away, be able to look back over 1878 and truthfully realize that it has been
